THE TRIAL OF THE MAYOR. - The trial Dr. J. B. Johnson, the Mayor, for an assault and battery, committed while acting under color of his office, upon Augustus Bryant, a white man, was begun in the Corporation Court this morning. The facts adduced at the trial showed that the complaining witness had been arrested and brought before the Mayor preteness, and had been found guilty of the offence and sentenced by the Mayor to receive fifteen lashes, but the execution of the sentence | York, last night. had been postponed upon the promise of the prisoner to quit the city. Subsequently Bryant committed another offence by breaking into and entering a house of ill fame, kept by a colored woman named Georgiana Day, on Royal street, between Princess and Queen. Upon his arrest and conviction for the second offence the Mayor executed the deferred judgment and ordered Day, in the station house. The defence was that the old sentence only had been carried into execu- made at former sale. tion. During the examination of the Mayor he went on to say to the jury that the Corporation Court had no right to try the Police Court, and in support of the statement produced a pointed assignce, vice L. no right to try the Police Court.

Judge Lowe-Then sir you will have to go to the Court of Appeals.

The Mayor's testimony concluded the egidence, and the Commonwealth's Attorney began the argument for the Commonwealth, and asserted that the Mayor had set himself above the law, but he was only the creature of the law, and not superior to it. The speaker criticised the official conduct of the Mayor, and said ! his acts could only be justified by the inhabitants of the Cannibal Islands.

At the conclusion of the argument of the attorney for the Commonwealth, Mr. Albert Stuart commenced the argument for the detence, contending that the punishment had been inflicted for the first offence of petit larceny, and was perfectly justifiable under the

The instructions of the Judge were then given, and the jury retired to their room. After a short absence they returned with a verdict of "not guilty."

M. E. Church.-The attendance at the services held in this church is increasing. Yesterday afternoon the meeting was of a highly interesting character. At night the pastor preached from Isaiah 52d chapter 1st verse, "Awake, Awake! put on thy strength O Zion." The sermon was an urgent call to the church to put away sloth and lethargy, and gird itself for lewer. Flour quiet and firm. Wheat quiet and work. At the close Mr. Webb stated that he did not intend to address himself specially to the unconverted until the members of the church were ready to go heartily into the work, but if any one present desired prayers he would be glad to be notified of the fact. One young man arose. After prayer the congregation was cessful, notwithstanding the unfavorable season in which they are being held. Rev. W. C. Webb will preach to night.

GERMAN CO-OPERATIVE BUILDING ASSO-CIATION .- The German Co-operative Building Association, No. 2, held its third annual meeting at Harmonie Hall last night.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Robert Portner, Secretary, J. Schneider; Treasurer, L. Stein; Directors, J. H. Reid and B. F. Price, to serve for three years, the others holding over; Trustees, Park Aguew, Joseph Kaufman and Robt. Bell, jr.

EPIPHANY .- To-morrow will be known in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches as the feast of the Epiphany of our Lord. It is reliable. There are many cases where wine would be used to great advantage in place of alchoholic drinks if only a genuine article could of the three wise men from the east to adore the infant Saviour, when they were miraculously guided by a star, as related in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel. It received its name of Epiphany or manifestation from the fact that Christ then first manifested himself to the Gentiles. The Catholic Church also celebrates on the same day the baptism of Christ and his first miracle of changing water into wine at the marriage feast at Cana, in Galilee. In that church it is observed as a holiday of obligation, and Masses will be said in St. Mary's Church at six and ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

REQUISITION .- Mr. Edmund Burke, Commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria county, received this morning from Gov. Kemper the necessary requisition on the Washington authorities for the surrender of John Diamond and Addison Spillman, arrested in that city some week or two ago for the robbery of Mr. E. A. Greenough's residence, near Falls to this city and lodged in jail.

FATAL SCALDING .- A little boy, aged about tour years, son of Mr. James Reedy, who lives at the junction of the Back Lick and Telegraph roads, while playing around the store, on Wednesday night, pulled over a pot of boiling coffee, the contents of which were scattered over his person, scalding him so badly that he died what he could to alleviate the child's sufferings.

HEADQUARTERS OLD DOMINION COMMD'Y., 1 No. 11, KNIGHTS TEMPLARS,

ALEXANDRIA, VA., December 13, 1876.

At a regular meeting of this command, held

December 13, 1876, the following resolutions were passed: Resolved, That the thanks of Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, K. T., be, and are here-by, tendered to those lady friends who, by the abundance of provision and the elegance and refinement of its preparation, contributed so largely to the success of the entertainment of Church. The prisoners will be at once brought | the Grand Commandery of Virginia by this command in November last.

Resolved, That to our lady friends this command is indebted in a great measure for whatever honors may have been earned on that occasion; that we will ever remember their generosity as the brightest page of our history, and ever deem it our highest privilege as well as our greatest pride to place the honors of the entertainment where they justly belong.

Resolved, That to the citizens who so handsomely decorated our streets on the occasion reresterday. Dr. Gibson was called on and did ferred to this command extends its heartiest thanks, and assures them that they have infused new life in the annual meetings of the Grand Commandery of Virginia and added additional lustre to the already famous name of Alexan-

WASHINGTON, January 5, 1877 .- The "remarks" at Mr. Conkling, of New York, in the Senate vesterday, disappointed "friend and What he said was well enough, but it left the hearer in doubt as to "whether the snake was going North or coming South."

Philips, of Kansas, in the House, and Wright, of Iowa, in the Senate, both radicals, in speeches yesterday, took the ground that Hayes had been elected, and should be counted in by the presiding officer of the Senate. Sherman admitted that the two Houses had the right to reject the vote of a State, but denied that either House separately could throw out a

pressed that trouble may ensue. Gov. Grover, of Oregon, sat in the Secate yesterday and listened attentively to a severe denunciation of himself by Mr. Wright. Wright's term expires on the 4th of next March, and Grover comes in on that day, which, in some measure, explains the complaisancy with which the latter took the eastigation, and has failed to resent the accusation that he "was not a fit associate for gentlemen. The refusal on the part of the radicals, in the House, yesterday, to allow an enquiry into the cause of the concentration of troops at the Capital, is the occasion of some comment, and is considered an indication of their further purpose to sustain the President in bls "force policy. It is stated here, by persons from the West, that the feeling out there in reference to the Presidential contest is intensifying, and that there is a regular war feeling springing up in the event of a disposition to cheat Mr. Tilden out of his election. An old gentleman from Kansas, who fought through the last war on the side of the Union, says he has twelve months' supplies at home, and is willing to come on here, with his rifle, and spend six months at Washington to see Tilden inaugu-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—In the Senate to-day on the motion of Mr. Edmunds, it was agreed that when the Senate adjourn it be to meet again on Monday next.

The resolution of Mr. Morton as to calling for the private telegrams in the Oregon case, was called up and supported by Mr. Morton. Mr. Kelly, of Oregon, replied at some length to the remarks in relation to the Oregon Presidential elector's case. He deprecated personal attacks on Gov. Grover, who had no chance to reply, and vindicated, by reference to the statutes of Oregon and the decisions of the courts in that State, the Governor's course. The discussion was continued by Mr. Mitchell, of Oregon, and Gen. Burnside, of R. 1. Mr. Sherman called the attention of the Senate to the importance of the question under consideration and deprecated the recent custom of compelling the production of private messages and the laying open of private matters to the public gaze. It was contrary to the fundamental principles of English liberty.

A conversational discussion ensued in which Mr. Morton, Mr. Ingalis, Mr. Conkling and others participated.

Mr. Bayard favored the exercise of the same power in reference to telegrams by the Senate, as is exercised by the courts.

Mr. Conkling doubted whether the resolution was a proper one for the occasion. The Senate then voted 33 to 3 to compel the Oregon telegraph operator to produce certain dispatches but lacking a quorum adjourned. In the House of Representatives, after the introduction and reference of several private

Mr. Wood reported a bill to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to deposit certain funds in the Treasury, in lieu of investments, for the benefit of the Indian fund, with certain Senate amendments, which amendments were non-concurred in, and a committee of conference was authorized.

The committees were called for bills of a prirate character, when Mr. Tucker, of Virginia, reported from the Committee on Ways and Means a bill for the relief of certain parties in St. Louis, which was

Mr. Atkins, of Tennessee, reported back the Invalid Pension bill, with a Senate amondment, which amendment was agreed to, and the bill as amended passed.

A bill for the sale of the Arkansas Hot Springs reservation was reported and recommited. The House at I o'clock went into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar, Mr. Hooker, of Miss, in the chair, and considered a number of private claim bills, all of which were objected to and therefore went over. Among the bills reached and objected to was one for the benefit of W. P. Burwell, of Richmond-a claim of $500 for tobacco seized by the government for non payment of, internal revenue tax, and subsequently destroyed by

Also a bill for the restoration to the army of Geo. A. Armes, a captain in the cavalry service. (Armes at one time commanded at Fairfax C. II., and is the same individual who originated the charges against Belkoap, thereby causing the fall of that official; Armes having first been dismissed the service "for conduct unbecoming an officer and soldier.") Also a bill for the relief of the Old Dominion Steamship Company for damages sustained by the ship Hatteras, amounting to $450. Also a bill to pay C. W. Button, editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, the cost of advertising property levied on by the U. S. Collector of internal revenue in that district. Also a bill for the relief of the Louisville Baptist Orphan's Home. To reissue certain bonds to said Home for others destroyed or Also a bill to ascertain the value and tittle of the property of the late Daniel Carrol, of Duddington, and to secure the conveyance of the said property to the U.S.

The hour of 2 o'clock having arrived, the Sergeant-at-Arms appeared with Barnes, the recusant New Orleans whitness, whereupon the Committee rose, and the Speaker resumed the chair, when Barnes was brought to the bar of the House, accompanied by counsel. In response to the questions of the Speaker, whether the prisoner would produce certain telegrams he had received, by the Clerk, his answer, in which he justifies his conduct as manager, denies that he was served with a proper subpona for the production of the telegrams, and there-fore that he is not in contempt. Further, that under the Louisiana law the production of private telegrams would have subjected him to punishment. He denies the authority of the House to compel the production of the telegrams and begs to be discharged. The anewer, with other papers, was referred to the Judiciary Committee, to report what action was necessary and Barnes recommitted to the custody of the Sergeant at Arms.

A few private bills were then passed. The deficiency appropriation bill was then passed and the House adjourned.
